DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 20, drawn to a method/apparatus, classified in class 347, subclass 102.
- II. Claims 21-24, drawn to an infrared curable ink composition for ink-jet recording, classified in class 347, subclass 105.

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because it is well known that an ink ejecting method/apparatus can use a variety of inks; it does not necessarily need to use the claimed infrared curable ink composition. The subcombination has separate utility such as being used in other ink jet methods/apparatuses than the claimed method/apparatus; it is well known that an ink composition can be used in a variety of different methods/apparatuses.

Within Group I, there is the following election requirement:

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species A drawn to directing onto said portion an amount of radiation energy, said amount is based on the number of said droplets of ink (as applied to claim 1 in its current form).

Art Unit: 2853

Species B drawn to directing onto said portion an amount of radiation energy, said amount is based on the color of said droplets of ink (as applied to claim 8 in its current form).

Species C drawn to directing onto said portion an amount of radiation energy, said amount is based on the amount of the marking material within said portion (as applied to claim 11 in its current form).

Within Species A, there is the following election requirement:

Species a drawn to wherein directing onto said portion said radiation energy comprises directing infrared radiation energy (as applied to claim 3 in its current form).

Species b drawn to wherein directing onto said portion said radiation energy comprises directing blue light radiation energy (as applied to claim 4 in its current form).

Species c drawn to wherein directing onto said portion said radiation energy comprises directing ultraviolet radiation energy (as applied to claim 5 in its current form).

Species d drawn to wherein directing onto said portion said radiation energy comprises directing microwave radiation energy (as applied to claim 6 in its current form).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Leonard S. Liang whose telephone number is (571) 272-2148. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-5 Monday-Friday.
